COUNTY POLITICS.
The following is from yesterday's Tribune:

Agitation has begun in local politics, and from present indications there is to be a lively contest for some of the county offices.

For State Senator there is a general desire that Evan Williams will accept a renomination at the hands of the Republicans.

For the Assembly, Phil Doyle, Frank Folsom and Sam Davis are mentioned. Dan Kitzmeyer is also urged by friends.

George Hark and Oliver Roberts would not object to filling Sheriff Ulrick's shoes, but the latter is opposed to a change.

S. Summerfield, President of the Young Men's Republican Club, will do the Grecian-Roman act with Hy Doane for the Clerkship.

It is reported that Cap. Withereff would willingly accept the County Recordership, but McCabe don't propose that he shall have the opportunity.

Jake Tobriner, for Treasurer, and Jim Torreyson, for District Attorney, will have a walk over. As will also Charley Friend for Public Administrator.

W. A. Hawthorne desires to be elevated from the Constableness to that of Justice of the Peace.

Hank Martin and Charles Bray apparently have no opposition for Commissioners.

The Democrats are "lying low," hoping to see some split in the Republican ranks, that being their only hope of success in staunch old Republican Ormsby.

A NEW JERSEY STRAW.

Mr. Bartine received a letter from Elizabethtown, N. J., yesterday, which contained some news about straw votes.

Coming back from the Gettysburg Reunion on the train, a vote was taken as follows:

Harrison	471
Cleveland	31
Among the Irish passengers the vote stood:
Harrison	113
Cleveland	27
In doubt	7

This is in the State the Democrats are claiming so industriously.

—It is a noticeable fact that when Christian people get into a row they fight in much meaner and more underhanded ways than professing worldlings. There was recently a row in the office of the Christian Independent at Oakland. Rev. Dr. Sweeney, the editor, was kicked out, and a few days afterwards got married and sent a notice of the event to the Independent office for publication. It was pitched into the waste basket. The writers on this Christian sheet might do well to ally themselves with the Police Gazette, or almost any flash newspaper for a few years (twelve or fourteen), and get some idea of journalistic propriety and common politeness.

—When a stranger comes into church and makes a motion in the direction of his coat-tail pocket for a handkerchief to wipe his perspiring brow, the congregation lose the thread of the discourse in a breathless and eager attempt to see whether a bandana or a flag handkerchief is produced.

—Silver State; Town property in Winnemucca is in brisk demand at good prices. Several persons want to rent houses, but cannot be accommodated. Some capitalist ought to build a dozen or more comfortable dwelling houses to rent. There is money in the investment.

—The Lugo (Cal.) Independent has started a subscription list for the purpose of erecting a monument to the memory of General Sheridan and heads the list with five dollars.
